What do Pitt First Year Mentors (FYMs) do?

The FYMs at Pitt are committed to providing vital service to new undergraduate students and their families as they make their transition to the University of Pittsburgh. We do that through developing and implementing comprehensive Orientation programs, First Year Experience events, Transfer Student workshops, and Commuter student initiatives. FYMs are connected student leaders and work collaboratively with offices in the Division of Student Affairs and more broadly throughout the University community. In the position, FYMs gain valuable experiences and skills in leadership, mentoring, group facilitation, public speaking, event planning, problem solving, and critical thinking. Additionally, you will be one of 20 other FYMs and part of the FYE and New Student Program family which means you’ll be working on a deeply connected team. Expect to learn a lot about yourself and others and maximize your Pitt experience!

Application/Selection Timeline:

- Application materials are due by Friday, November 3 at 5:00 p.m. to William Pitt Union 119
- Individual and Group Interviews will take place between November 10 – 17th
