The Office of First Year Experience (FYE) would like to invite you to join us for a one-day orientation experience designed to connect you to campus and provide you with key resources as you prepare for your first semester at Pitt.

- This is an optional opportunity, and does not excuse new students from participating in the required New and Transfer Student Orientation program on Sunday, January 7 from 3–5 p.m.
- If you would like to meet with your academic advisor on this day, you must contact them directly to schedule an appointment in advance. Appointment slots are limited.
- Parents and family members are welcome to attend all sessions.

REGISTRATION IS RECOMMENDED. VISIT STUDENTAFFAIRS.PITT.EDU/FYE/orientation TO REGISTER.

1–5 P.M.

Free Time on Campus

Take advantage of this time to complete a few things off your to-do list! FYE Staff will be available in the William Pitt Union Lobby to answer questions, provide directions, and pass out additional resources.

- Meet with your Academic Advisor
  If you would like to meet with your academic advisor on this day, you must contact them directly to schedule an appointment in advance. Appointment slots are limited.

- Visit the Wellness Center
  The Wellness Center is made up of the University Counseling Center and Student Health Service. Stop by and learn more about how they work to keep you healthy and well at Pitt. Also, this is a great time to drop off your immunization forms, insurance information and any prescriptions. Learn more: studentaffairs.pitt.edu/shs and studentaffairs.pitt.edu/cc

- Stop by Panther Central
  Located in Towers Lobby, at Panther Central you can get your Pitt ID, check in on housing placements, or sign up for a meal plan. Learn more: pc.pitt.edu

- Drop in to Financial Aid
  The Financial Aid Office has open drop in hours during this time. You can meet with an advisor and have your individual aid and scholarship questions answered. Learn more: oafa.pitt.edu/financialaid
