The Pitt Promise:
A Commitment to Civility

The University of Pittsburgh is committed to the advancement of learning and service to society. This is best accomplished in an atmosphere of mutual respect and civility, self-restraint, concern for others, and academic integrity. By choosing to join this community, I accept the obligation to live by these common values and commit myself to the following principles:

As a Pitt Student:

- I will embrace the concept of a civil community which abhors violence, theft and exploitation of others,
- I will commit myself to the pursuit of knowledge with personal integrity and academic honesty,
- I will respect the sanctity of the learning environment and avoid disruptive and deceitful behavior toward other members of the campus community,
- I will support a culture of diversity by respecting the rights of those who differ from myself,
- I will contribute to the development of a caring community where compassion for others and freedom of thought and expression are valued,
- I will honor, challenge and contribute to the scholarly heritage left by those who preceded me and work to leave this a better place for those who follow.

By endorsing these common principles, I accept a moral obligation to behave in ways that contribute to a civil campus environment and resolve to support this behavior in others. This commitment to civility is my promise to the University of Pittsburgh and its community of scholars.

Expectations for Fraternity and Sorority Membership

Students at the University of Pittsburgh are expected to conduct themselves in a manner supportive of the educational mission of the institution. Integrity, respect for the person and property of others, and a commitment to intellectual and personal growth in a diverse population are values deemed fundamental to membership in this University community.

- Acknowledge that the primary purpose for being at the University of Pittsburgh is to pursue a higher education and to maintain high academic standards.
- Know and understand the ideals and values of the chapter and incorporate them into daily life.
- Continuously support a positive new member education program that is alcohol free.
- Not support or participate in any form of hazing as described in the anti-hazing policy, the Student Code of Conduct, and the laws of Pennsylvania.
- Adhere to the Student Code of Conduct.
- Practice bystander intervention where at risk behavior is displayed.

• Know and understand the “Rights Affirmed by the Board of Trustees” section of the Student Code of Conduct.

The Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life expects chapter advisors to meet or to have a virtual meeting with their chapters at least once a semester, receive their chapter’s minutes, be aware of chapter functions, and be knowledgeable of this manual. The Student Organization Resource Center (SORC) requires all organizations to have an advisor on file with SORC as well as our office.

Chapters are required to submit any contact information changes for the chapter advisor and written notification if the chapter advisor changes to the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life.
